15 Civ. 6843 (JFK)

ORDER

JOHN F. KEENAN, United States District Judge

On June 23, 2019, the Court received multiple submissions by the parties. The Court rules on two of those submissions (ECF Nos. 144 & 146) as follows:

- (1) Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration of the Court's June 19, 2019 order (ECF No. 144) is denied. Evidence of weapons collected at the scene of Mr. Almonte's arrest is permitted. If Plaintiff denies possessing a firearm on December 5, 2013 (contrary to Plaintiff's previous assertion that he "has no intention of testifying that he did not possess a firearm" (ECF No. 120 at 23)), then Defendants are permitted to introduce evidence that Plaintiff was convicted for possession of a firearm, without any reference to Plaintiff being a "felon" in possession of a firearm. Additionally, evidence of the Defendants' disciplinary histories is precluded.
- (2) Defendants' request that the Court dismiss Plaintiff's claim against defendant Officer Laura Cadavid for failure to intervene in the use of excessive force (ECF No. 146 at 2-3) is denied.

SO ORDERED.
